

South Western Ontario Dairy Symposium 2017 Interactive Questions

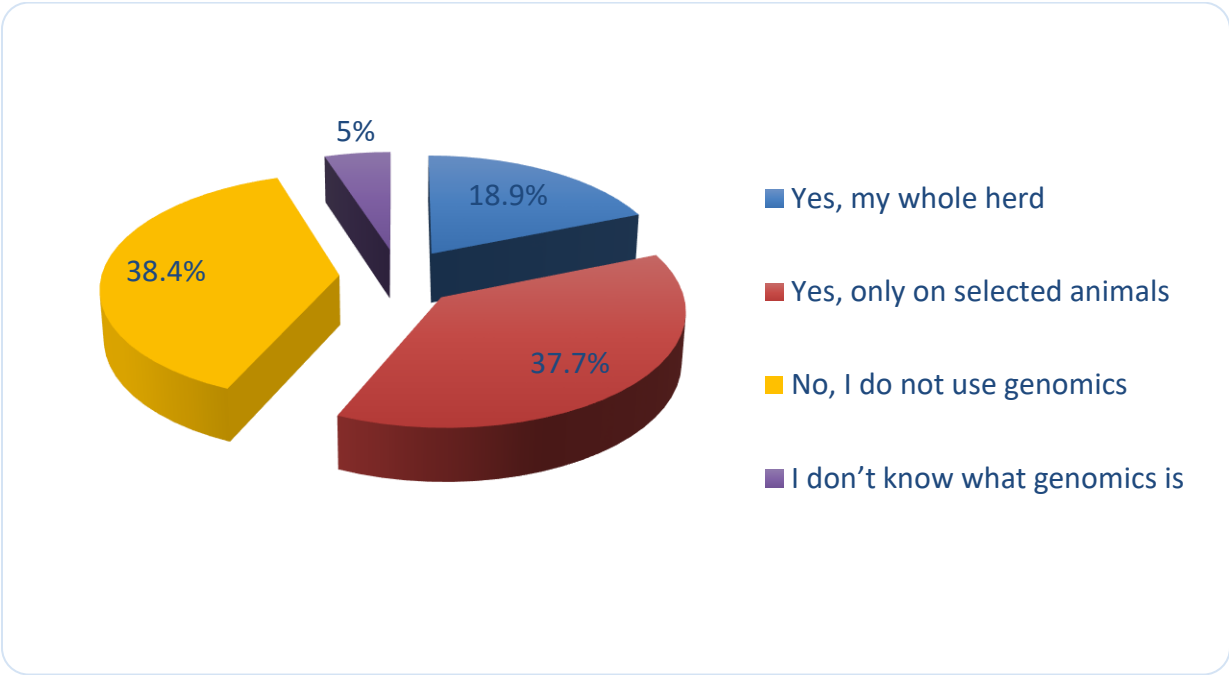

Question 1. How do you define innovation?

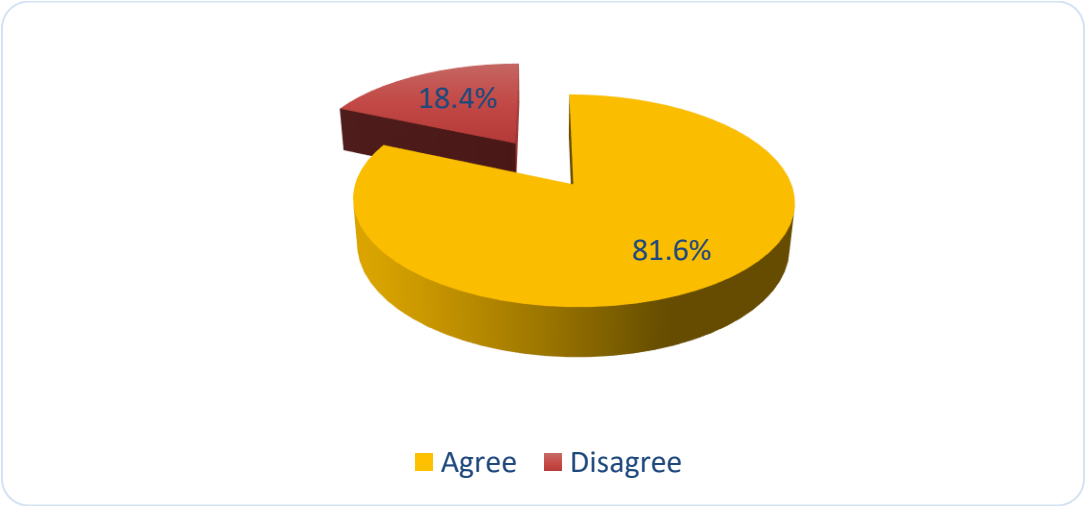

Question 2. What is your knowledge of dairy processing in Canada?

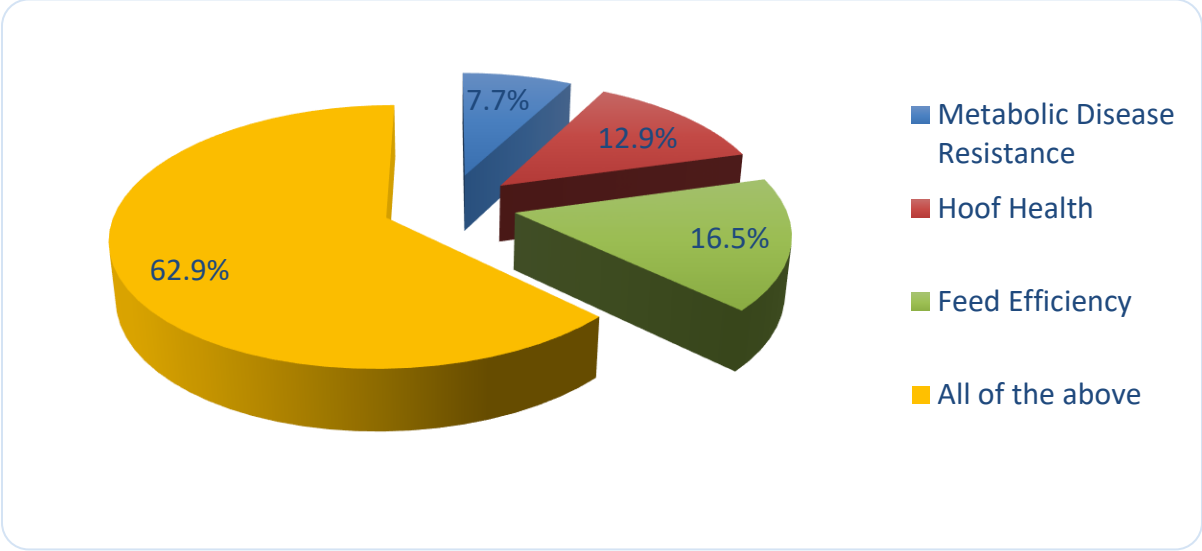

Question 3. Do you used genomics in your herd?

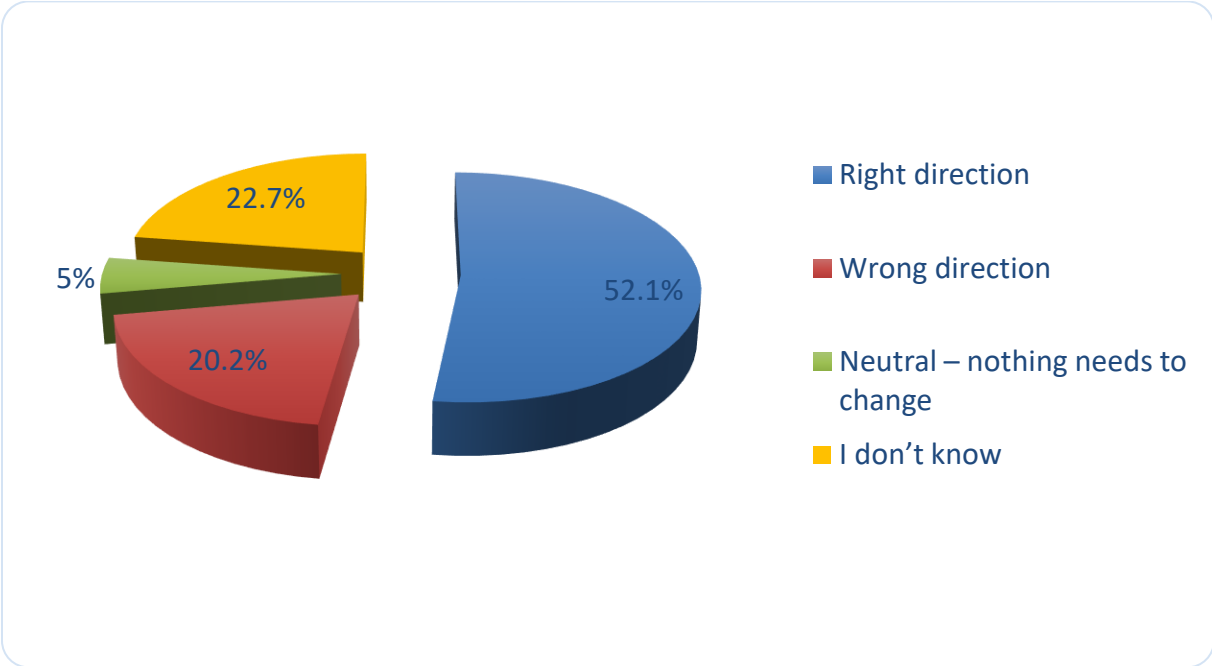

Question 4. I will use traits with small genetics influence and high management influence, such Daughter Fertility, Mastitis Resistance, calving traits.

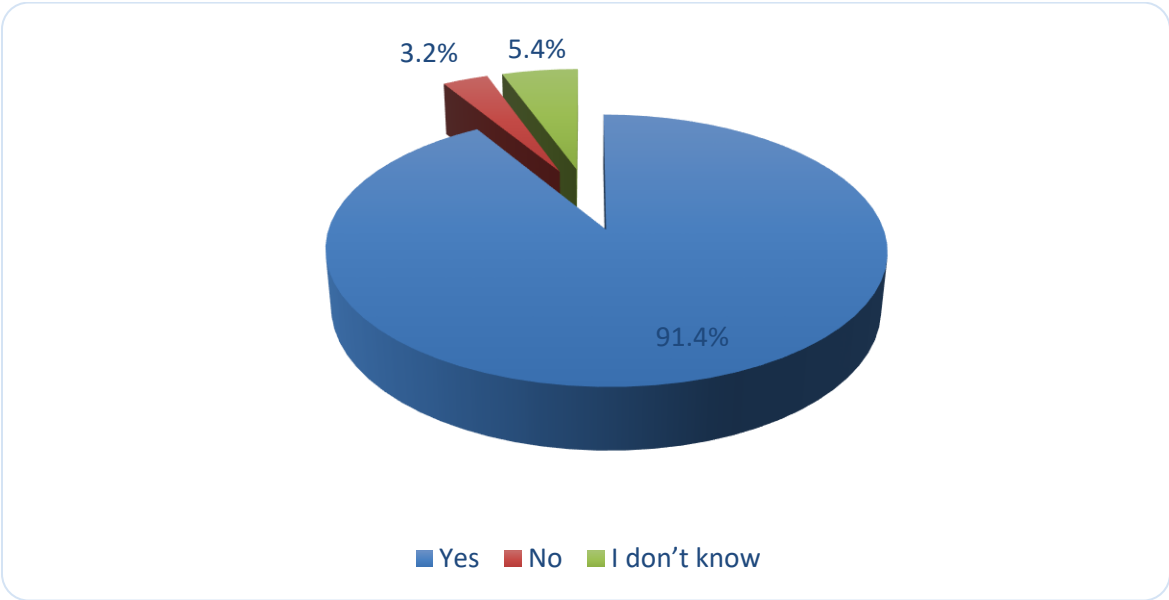

Question 5. The trait that I feel will be the most useful tool in my genetic selection toolbox is:

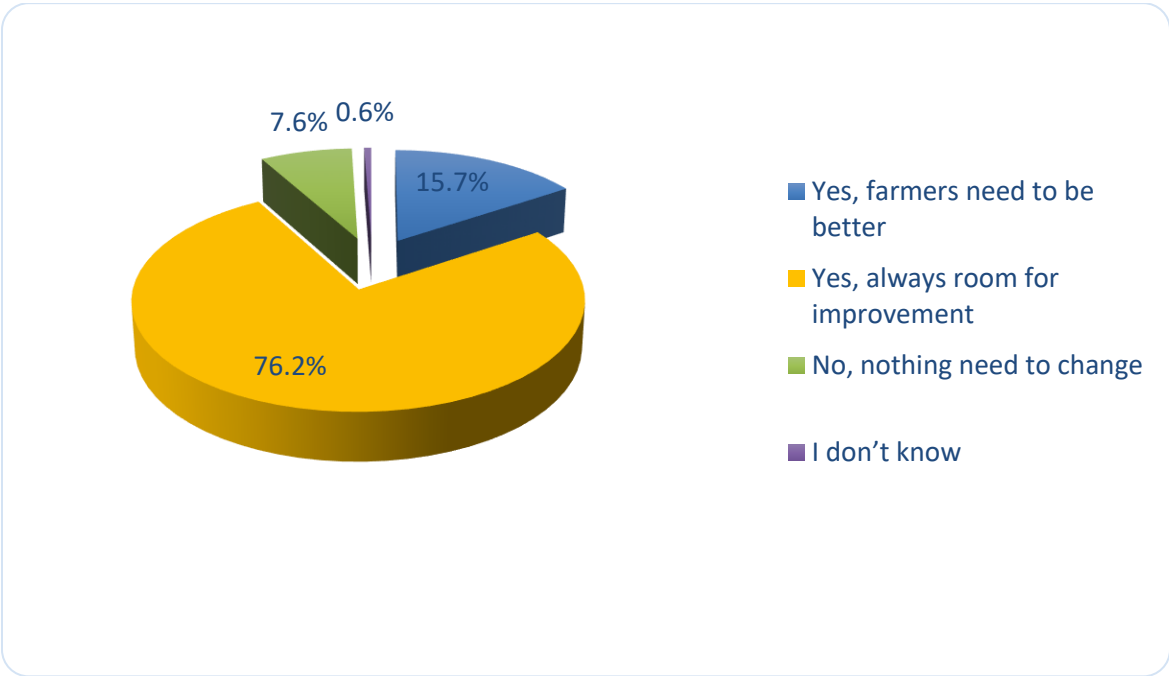

Question 6. Do you think the food system is headed in the right direction of the wrong track?

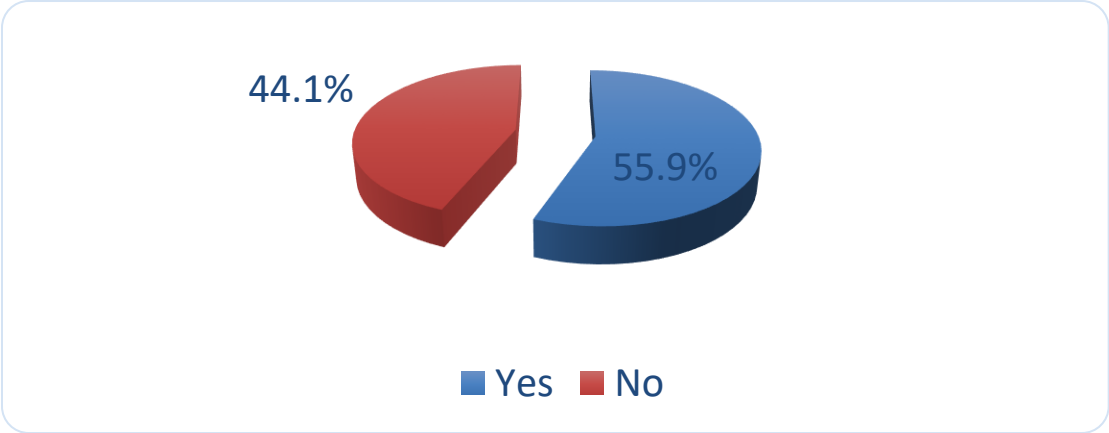

Question 7. Are Canadian Farmers environmental stewards?

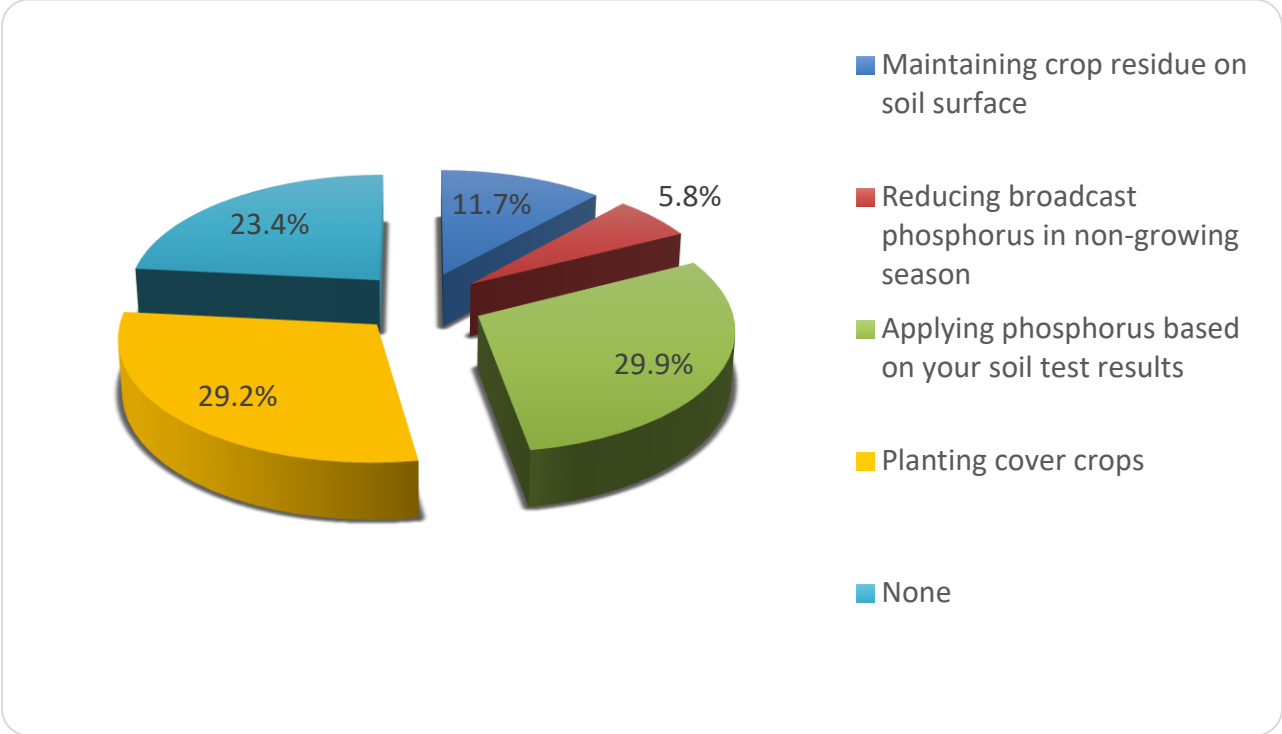

Question 8. Can Canadian farmers be better environmental stewards?

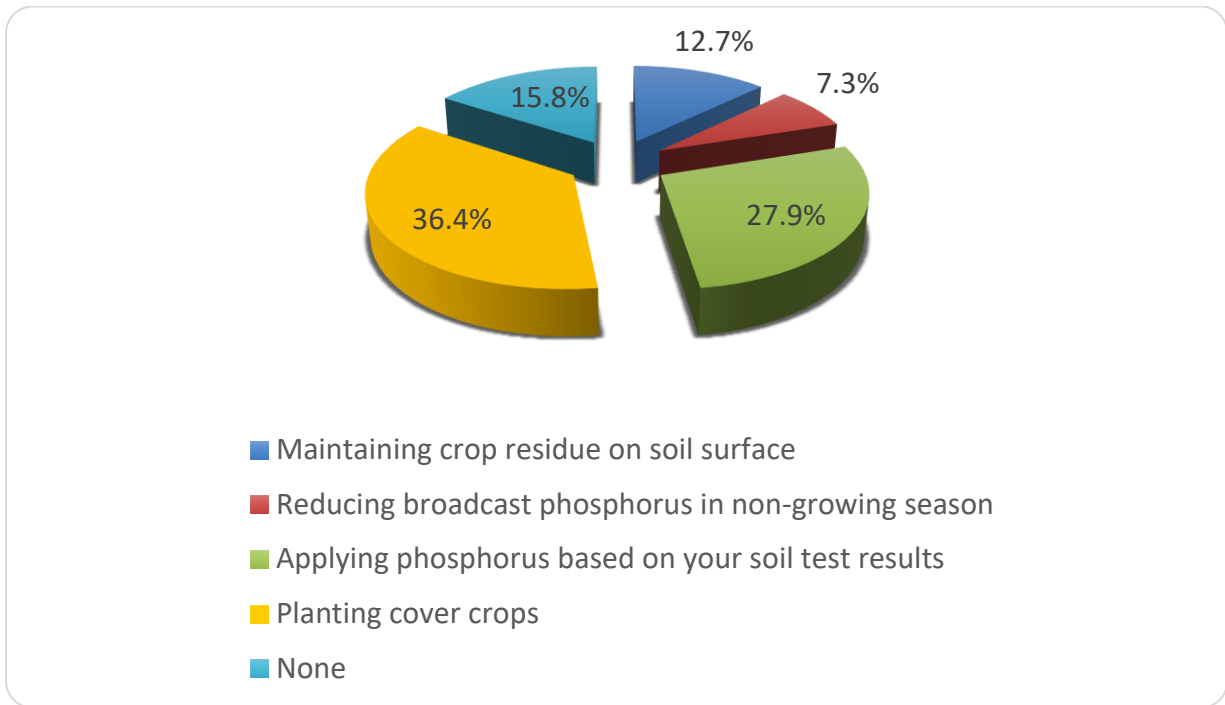

Question 9. Have you heard of Ontario's commitment to reduce phosphorus in the Great Lakes by 40% by 2025?

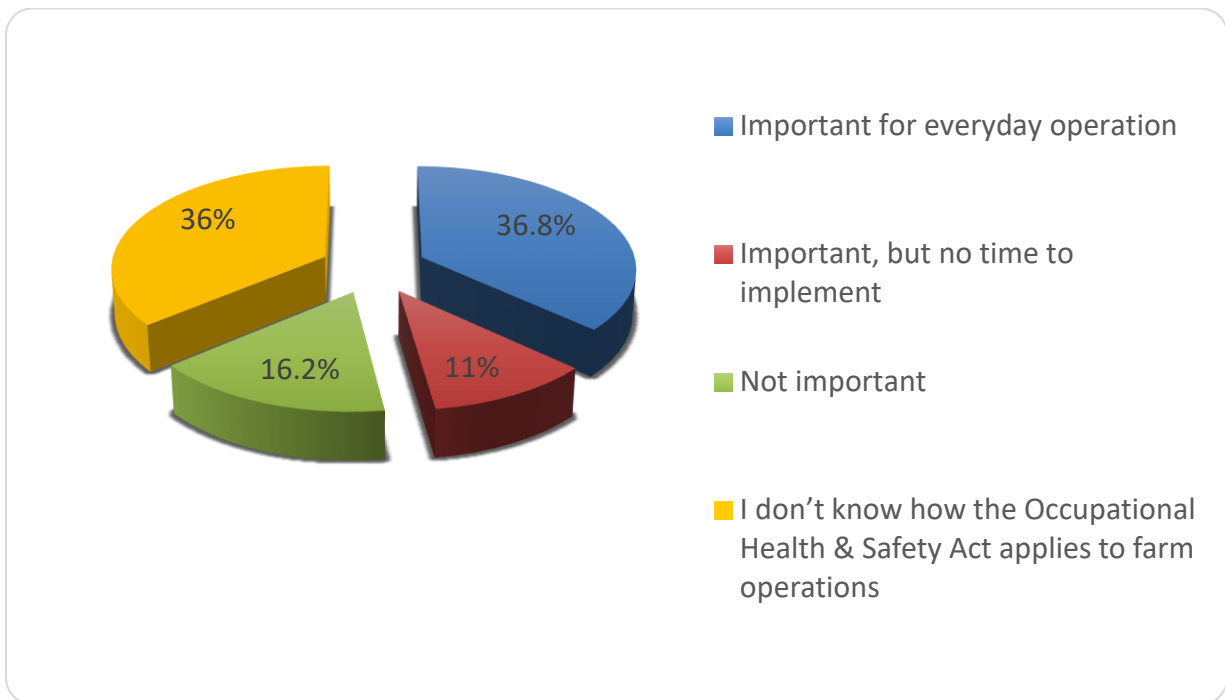

Question 10. What changes, if any, have you made on your farm/agribusiness to reduce phosphorus loss?

Question 11. What changes, if any, are you considering making on your farm or agribusiness to reduce phosphorus loss?

Question 12. What does the Occupational Health and Safety Act and Farming Regulations mean to you?

Question 13. Do you feel the Canadian dairy producer is well positioned for the future?

